

James Richard Tilley

Navy veteran enjoyed being outdoors

James Richard Tilley, 65, of Washington, formerly of Louisiana, died unexpectedly Sunday, January 22, 2012, in his home.

He was born October 7, 1946, in Jonesboro, La., son of the late Wess and Allie D. Myers Tilley.

Mr. Tilley served in the U.S. Navy from April 6, 1970, until his honorable discharge July 31, 1974, with a rank of lieutenant. He was awarded the National Defense Service Medal.

He especially enjoyed his grandchildren and also enjoyed hunting, camping and being outdoors.

Mr. Tilley worked for many years, and in many capacities, in the oil and gas industry. For the past six years, he was employed as a drilling manager for EOG Resources in Canonsburg.

He was Baptist.

On May 30, 1970, he married Donna B. Warren, who survives.

Also surviving are a son, James "Wess" Tilley, and a daughter, Sherrie Singleton, both of Houghton, La.; two brothers, Randall Tilley of Titusville, Fla., and Marshall Tilley of Social Circle, Ga.; and seven grandchildren, Chase, Cade and Courtney Stepp, Paige and Abbie Pruett and Caleb and Peyton Tilley.
