OCTOBER 6, 2005 MEMBERSHIP MEETING – OKLAHOMA CITY

Mr. James (Jim) A. Miller, President and CEO of JM&C will be our guest speaker. Mr. Miller has over 25 years helping major global corporation implement performance improvements, mostly in the oil and gas industry. Mr. Miller has led major transformation efforts at DuPont, Conoco, NOVA, and Texaco. He has experience in North America, Europe, Asia, Africa, the Middle East, the former Soviet Union, and Latin America. Mr. Miller is the creator of “The Alpha Organization”, a strategic framework that encourages organization’s to strive for the leader’s position in their industry and then to sustain that leadership position, once it has been achieved. Mr. Miller’s talk will center around the role of “Drilling Engineer” in the “Alpha Organization”.

The meeting will be held at Twin Hills Country Club, Thursday, October 6. Cost will be $25.00 including dinner. Happy Hour will begin at 5:30 with dinner at 6:00. Mr. Miller will begin his remarks at 6:30 p.m.

Please RSVP to Cathy Roark (405-552-4527) or cathy.roark@dvn.com by 12 noon, Monday, October 3, 2005 if you will attend.
