RSVP Today for AADE/SPE Meeting on Tuesday, December 6

William L. Koederitz of GK Plus Innovations LLC will Discuss 'Lessons Learned, How NOT to Do Drilling Automation'

AADE will again join with the local SPE chapter for its distinguished lecturer's series for December. Please join us from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday, December 6 at the Petroleum Club of Lafayette for the joint industry event.

William L. Koederitz of GK Plus Innovations LLC will discuss "Lessons Learned, How NOT to Do Drilling Automation."

The cost to attend will be $25 for members and non-members who register before December 5 and $30 at the door. PLEASE REGISTER ON THE SPE WEBSITE

MORE ABOUT THIS PRESENTATION: The uses of automation in the drilling process are expanding and are typically resulting in improved drilling performance. However, many of these projects struggle in the initial stages, often trying to overcome a common set of hurdles. Many of these hurdles are not technical challenges, but instead are related to people issues and the methods for implementing the solutions. This presentation covers the basics of drilling automation and describes the problems and solutions that have been found to improve the startup success for drilling automation.

IDEA TO TAKE AWAY: For automation to be successful, the key users, especially the driller, must be involved in every step of design and implementation.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER: Bill Koederitz is Chief Technology Officer at GK Plus
Innovations. Previously, Bill spent 20 years building real-time applications and drilling automation systems at National Oilwell Varco. Prior to that, Bill worked as a drilling engineer and as a university researcher. He holds BS, MS and PhD degrees in Petroleum Engineering from Louisiana State University and is a Registered Petroleum Engineer in Texas. He has authored or coauthored 25 technical papers and holds 15 patents.

Please note that the day for the December meetings will be different, and registration will be handled through the SPE website.
