RSVP Today: LOGA to Present at January 16 AADE General Meeting

The Louisiana Oil & Gas Association (LOGA) will offer its annual state of the industry discussion at the January AADE Lafayette Chapter General Meeting. LOGA Director of Marketing & Membership Development Ben Broussard will present: Both Sides of the Story: The Current State of Louisiana’s Oil & Gas Industry. Please join us from 11:30 a.m. Monday, January 16 at the Petroleum Club of Lafayette for this event.

The cost to attend will be $20 with reservations and $25 at the door. Please RSVP before Friday, January 13. >>CLICK TO REGISTER

ABOUT THE SPEAKER: Ben Broussard joined the LOGA team in 2006 and serves as director of marketing and membership development. Besides engaging and bringing new member companies into LOGA, he also conceptualizes, develops and executes LOGA’s many educational and networking events held throughout the year. Additionally, Broussard serves in an external communications role as the producer of LOGA's industry video content, including the LOGA Drilling Report for Louisiana, the LOGA Capitol Report covering legislative activity and LOGA Industry Watch segments educating the public and government on important developments concerning the oil & gas industry. His external outreach also includes LOGA's vast media network and the LOGA Industry Report publication. Finally, Broussard works to carry out LOGA's education initiative by speaking statewide to business and civic networking groups, as well as middle and high school students regarding the importance of the oil and gas industry in Louisiana.

He is a graduate of the EJ Ourso School of Business at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge. He is married to Simonne Guerin Broussard, and the couple resides in Lafayette with their three sons.
