From the President

It's hard to believe that it is already September. Fall is officially about to begin and kids are back at school. Football has started, and it won't be long before the summer heat is just a bad memory. We have a great year ahead full of fundraisers and excellent forum speakers.

I'd like to thank Vince Fong for speaking at our August meeting and everyone who was able to make it out. Vince is very optimistic about California's political future, and I for one hope he is correct and wish him luck in Sacramento.

I'm also excited about our speaker this month, Jason Geis. You won't want to miss Jason on September 28th. I look forward to seeing everyone at the Rice Bowl for a great presentation, exceptional camaraderie, and tolerable food.

Sincerely,

Clayton Gossett
